

Entry level corporate financial analyst role (Tucker Midis & Owen – Atlanta, GA)

This opening is for an in-person, full-time, entry level corporate finance analyst with TMO (“Tucker Midis & Owen”), a merchant banking company in the Cumberland/Galleria area of Atlanta, GA (15 minute drive north of downtown Atlanta and home of the Atlanta Braves’ Truist Park). Responsibilities include compiling financial statements, analyzing financial performance, and data entry working primarily with one of TMO’s portfolio investments in the 3rd Party Logistics space. This person will work closely with the Logistics Company’s VP of Finance with opportunities to develop and grow within the organization for enterprising professionals. Candidates should be detail oriented with an undergraduate degree in finance. Proficiency with Excel and PowerPoint, excellent communication skills, the ability to work with deadlines, function and as part of a team are all required. A knowledge of supply chain management while not required, is a plus.
